

CALIFORNIA STATE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

Biography

Todd Jerue

Todd Jerue is the Program Budget Manager for the Corrections/General Government Unit within the Department of Finance, which oversees the budgets of entities under the State and Consumer Services and Labor and Workforce Development Agencies, the Departments of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Veterans Affairs, and Food and Agriculture, various constitutional officers, including the Attorney General, Secretary of State, and the Insurance Commissioner, and other public safety departments including the Office of Emergency Services.

Mr. Jerue began working at the Department of Finance in 1997 as a Finance Budget Analyst. He has since served as a Principal Program Budget Analyst in various assignments and as the Assistant Program Budget Manager for Corrections and Public Safety in the Corrections/General Government Unit. Prior to working at the Department of Finance, Mr. Jerue spent over 10 years in the restaurant industry.

Mr. Jerue earned a Bachelor's degree and Master's degree in Business Administration from California State University, Sacramento. He is married to Shelley Jerue who is a math teacher at San Juan High School in Citrus Heights. They have two children, Emily and Justin.